Lesson for June 21

PETER DELIVERED FROM PRISON

LESSON TEXT—Acts 12:1-19.

GOLDEN TEXT—The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear Him, and delivereth them.—Ps. 34:7.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Peter and the Angel.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Peter's Deliverance From Prison.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Peter Was Brought Out of Prison.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Possibilities of Prayer.

I. Peter's Imprisonment (vv. 1-4).

1. By Whom (v. 1).

Herod, the grandson of the wicked Herod who slew the innocent children of Bethlehem.

2. The Reason (v. 3).

It was to gain the favor of the Jews. Herod was not a Jew, but an Edomite, therefore knew that his success was dependent upon his having the good will of the Jews. He did not particularly hate the church, but loved popularity. Since the church had developed so as to be a successful rival of Judaism, he saw an opportunity to curry favor with the Jews by putting forth his hands against it.

3. The Method (v. 4).

He was arrested, put into prison and guarded by four quaternions of soldiers. A quaternion is a guard of four soldiers. Four quaternions means that a special group was on duty each watch of the night. It was the custom for two soldiers to be in the prison, one on each side of the prisoner bound to his arms with chains (v. 6), the third one to watch outside the door, and the fourth to be near the outside gate.

II. The Church of God in Prayer (v. 5).

The church was at a crisis. Her situation was most grave. James, one of the brethren of the church, was dead, and Peter, the most prominent of all, was in prison. In ride desperate straits they did the wise thing—they betook themselves to prayer. It was a noteworthy prayer.

1. It Was Unto God, Not Unto Men, or to Be Heard of Men.

2. It was United Prayer.

3. It Was an Intensely Earnest Prayer.

It was more than unceasing prayer. It was the earnest desire of the soul as it stretched itself out toward God.

4. It Was Definite Prayer.

They specifically offered prayer to God for Peter. Their prayer was concentrated, definite and specific.

III. Peter Delivered by an Angel (vv. 6-11).

This occurred the night before Herod's plan to make a public display of him.

1. Peter Sleeping (v. 6).

The Lord keeps in perfect peace those whose minds are stayed on Him (Isa. 26:3).

2. Peter Leaving the Prison. (vv. 7-10).

A heavenly light shone in the prison. The angel smote Peter on the side; the chains fell off. Peter put on his clothes and passed by one guard after another through the iron gate out into the city. The whole transaction was orderly and leisurely, showing that God is not in a hurry.

3. The Effect Upon Peter (v. 11).

Although the matter was so wonderful to Peter, even outside his consciousness, when he came to himself he was assured beyond a peradventure that God had miraculously delivered him from Herod's wicked hand.

IV. Unconscious Unbelief (vv. 12-19).

1. The Behavior of Peter and the Church (vv. 12-17).

Peter went to the house of Mary and knocked. The knock was answered by Rhoda who was so overjoyed that she forgot to open the gate, and ran in and told them that Peter was at the gate. The disciples were not prepared for such good news, and even accused her of madness. She, undaunted, insisted. They offered as an explanation that perhaps it might be Peter's guardian angel in his likeness. Peter rehearsed unto them the Lord's dealing with him, and instructed them to make these things known unto James and the brethren.

2. The Behavior of the Soldiers (vv. 18-19).

There was great agitation among them as to what had become of Peter. This was a serious matter since they were responsible for him. Not being able to account for Peter's escape, Herod commanded that they be put to death. After this Herod went down to Caesarea. Here he was adored as god. Because he arrogated this honor to himself, the Lord smote him. Herod died, but the Word of the Lord grew and multiplied.

Value of a Deed

The value of a deed depends upon its meaning, and its meaning depends upon its motive and the spirit and purpose that prompt it.—The widow's mite is really worth more than the spare cash of the rich, because it means more.—Samuel Mickleen.

The First Thing

God's rule is over all; and in all our perplexity, doubt, and fear, Jesus reminds us that the first thing is faith in God.—T. R. Glover.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

"You've raising cotton and corn, you say,
As fine as the earth will grow
You're raising cattle and hogs and sheep
That win wherever they go

You're raising wheat that is said to beat,
And I know you're selling the 'stuff'
But tell me this, you man of the soil,
How are you raising your son?

Do you take the time to talk with him
Of the things he ought to know;
Do you show him the good and bad of life,
And teach him the way to go?

Does he trust you as a son should do?
Do you make him your friend or slave
Will he stand some day with his fellowmen,
Honest and strong and brave?

Cattle and corn are wheat and oats,
Are things that it's well to grow;
And cattle and hogs and a bank account
Are good for a man I know

But the ribbons you take and the m ney
you make
Will bring but a night of joy
If you get to the top of the hill and find
You have made scrub of your boy".

—J. H Beasley

VERA

Sunday, the 21st, was the longest day in the year—the sun being scheduled to shine 15 hours and 17 minutes; rising at 4:23 and setting 7:40. Time flies so swiftly that the shortest, and coldest days will be upon us before we realize it.

Most of the wheat in this section has been cut; the indications are that the yield will be the best for several years.

Tobacco not all planted yet; farmers waiting for another season. If one does'nt come soon they will have to do as the Amherst farmers are doing—plant their tobacco land to late corn.

A marriage was solemnized at Liberty Chapel Saturday afternoon when Mary Everette Doss, of Lynchburg became the bride of Joel Bernard Ferguson, of near Holly-wood, Rev. Tucker, performed the ceremony. These young people start on life's voyage with the good wishes of the community.

Mrs. Charles Grow who has been nursing in Lynchburg is home for a rest.

Her many friends here will be glad to know that Mrs. John Crabtree, nee Miss Eliza Anderson, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Cordelia Anderson, here.

Jim Megginson who is visiting friends here, sang at Liberty Chapel Sunday morning—his wife accompanied him on the organ.

Mrs. Walker Carnefix, who has been in a Lynchburg hospital is expected home this week. We are glad to learn of her improvement.

We regret to learn of the illness of Bennie, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. William Beale.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson were delighted to receive a letter from their son James, whom they have not seen for four years and haven't had a line from for 18 months. He has been with the U. S. Marine and is now at Newport News, and says he will be home soon.

A sad sorrege of relatives and friends accompanied the remains of Mrs. Nancy Frances Kyle, who died at the home of her daughter Mrs. Woolridge on June 18 at 619 Withers Street. She has been a great sufferer from cancer of the liver for about 4 months. She is survived by two daughters, Mesdames. Coleman and Woolridge, one son Adlai, one sister, Mrs. Walker Carnefix, and three brothers George, Thomas and Therius Robertson. Her remains were laid to rest at her old home near Rose Bower. The bereaved family has the sympathy of the whole community.

Mrs. Orville Clifton Bell, of Bedford, has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter Gretchen Parr, to Mr. Howard Bidwell Matthews—The ceremony will be performed at Saint John's Episcopal church at Bedford Va., at half past six o'clock on Wednesday evening the 24th of June. Miss Bell was a County Home Demonstration Agent at one time and was very popular and had many friends in this community. All her friends wish her much happiness on the voyage of life.

An aeroplane passed over this vicinity Sunday evening between six and seven o'clock. It was flying quite low and was going in the direction of Lynchburg.

All who are not otherwise engaged on the morning of July 4th, should "take in the vaudeville (home talent) at the residence of H. W. Kinney at Wildway. This is simply for the amusement of their neighbors, friends and all who care to come and no admission will be charged. Local "hits" on different sections, and people will be one of the features and the program will close with fire works. The "show" will open promptly at 8:30.

If the young professor, who taught "evolution" in the schools of Tennessee had read his Bible intelligently, he would probably not have been in the lime-light now. Restitution signifies restoring or putting back to a previous condition; and if man's previous condition was the monkey state, restoring back to monkeyhood would be a curse instead of a blessing—Acts 3-21.

HIXBURG

H. B. Swan of Bluefield, W. Va., spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Ella Swan, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Shrieves of Mt. Hope, W. Va., spent last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis.

Our farmers are just about thru harvesting, and the prospect for a good yield of wheat is very encouraging.

Dabney Swan, who has been spending some time with his uncle, J. H. McCue, left Sunday for his home in Bluefield, where he will be employed by the N. & W. Ry. Co.

Mr. Osbourne of near Phenix, who has been hauling lumber from the sawmill on the J. W. Coleman place has completed his job and will move back to his home this week.

The Misses Meredith of Roanoke, are at home on a vacation.

W. A. Swan has harvested over 75 bushels of potato onions.

Generally speaking our corn crops are looking well.

W. M. U. association meets with Valley River church July 1st and 2nd. Mrs. J. H. McCue Superintendent of W. M. U. of Appomattox Association requests a full attendance at this association July 1st 7:30 p. m., and all day services July 2nd beginning promptly at 10 a. m. All delegates going by the Virginian or N. & W. Ry. will be met at Brookneal station and all persons wishing homes over night write Mrs. Charlie D. Midkiff, Brookneal, Va. A pageant will be given at the opening service on Wednesday night at which time Rev. Mr. Brickhouse will make an address and Miss Blanche White Cor. Secty. will make her address at noon hour on July 2nd. All W. M. U. workers and interested friends are earnestly requested to be present at this meeting.

Mrs. Jack Marshall is on a visit to her sister in Roanoke.

Ira Southall has rented the J. T. Coleman farm for a term of five years.

EVERGREEN

Rev. J. W. Carroll a representative of the Children's Home Society of Richmond, preached a splendid sermon at the Presbyterian church here Sunday.

Misses Lucille and Evelyn Browning of Richmond, and Miss Ethelyn Lee are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lee.

Mrs. Z. E. Cheatham and little son who have been visiting her parents at Dillwyn have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Mott Harvey and children and Mrs. J. J. Farrar were guests of Mrs. W. D. Hunter Sunday and report a splendid time.

Miss Myrtle Evans has returned home from a pleasant visit to friends in Lynchburg. Miss Kathleen Wood accompanied her home.

Mrs. T. T. Evans was guest of friends at Winfall Sunday.

Mrs. Vick Evans is visiting her son, C. T. Evans, here.

"Did someone ask what is on for the 4th of July". Well the ladies of the Methodist church here will have a lawn party beginning at 5 p. m. Come and meet your friends and help a good cause.

TIGHT FEELING

Stomach Troubles Relieved by the Aid of Black-Draught.

Telling how he obtained relief from very disagreeable symptoms of stomach trouble, Mr. Charles T. Wintz, of R. F. D. 4, Huntington, W. Va., made the following statement:

"I was using Black-Draught. I have gas on my stomach, pressed and seemed to breath, and I would have a tight feeling. My head would ache, and I was in a very bad fix.

"I had tried remedies that didn't seem to do me any good. I saw Black-Draught advertised and sent for it.

"After taking a few doses, I knew it was helping me. It seemed to break up the gas, and the tight, binding ceiling disappeared, and I was like a new man. I would not be without Black-Draught. I can eat anything I want to, if I get dizziness in the head, Black-Draught relieves it."

Men and Money Make this Bank Secure.

THERE are two ways of measuring the strength of a bank. In the first place—and perhaps even more important—are men, the officers and directors. They give the bank character, determine and execute its policies.

This is a strong bank, a helpful bank because it has ample resources, and a personnel of proven character and ability.
